

TSOIOTSI TSO GALII LODGE
ORDER OF THE ARROW

Spring Inductions
May 5-7, 2017
Cherokee Scout Reservation

The induction weekend (ordeal) is the cornerstone of the Order of the Arrow experience. Every current and past member of the OA has participated in an ordeal weekend. To date, nearly 1 million Scouts and Scouters have participated in an induction to become members of our order.

Your time will be spent in cheerful service preparing camp for the summer season. This weekend will be used for each candidate to reflect upon one's time in Scouting and for them to consider what they will do going forward. Every induction weekend contains three key parts; taking a vow of silence, eating scant food, and spending a night away from others. All components of this weekend adhere to The Guide to Safe Scouting and are supervised by trained and qualified adults.

To find out more about the weekend view our candidate guide and event information by visiting our website at lodge70.org

Plan to arrive at Cherokee Scout Reservation between 6pm and 8pm on Friday, May 5.

Departure will be on Saturday evening around 7:30. We will dismiss when all facilities have been cleaned.
