

2010

Lodge Chief: John Elliott
 Vice-Chief – Program: Zach Warner
 Vice-Chief – Administration: Chris Molnar

Vice-Chief – Indian Affairs: Dustin Cocklereece
 Vice-Chief – Communications: Chris Stevens
 Lodge Advisor: Rob Kennerly

Officers serving from June 1, 2009 – May 31, 2010

The Lodge started 2010 with its “First Event” on January 2. This activity held at St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Church in Greensboro was open to Scouts and Scouters that wanted to learn more about all aspects of the Order of the Arrow. Sessions were held on Indian Affairs – Ceremonies, Dancing, Drumming, and Regalia. Arrowmen could receive training in Camp Promotions, Unit Elections, and Serving as Elangomats. It was a very productive day with fun had by all!

On March 26 - 28 the lodge held its Spring Fellowship at Cherokee Scout Reservation. Brothers arrived on Friday evening and enjoyed playing games and hanging out in the Dining Hall for a grand cracker barrel. Saturday activities included training in Indian Affairs, training for Elangomats and Ceremonialists, and Chapter competition in Quest events. There was preparation for the upcoming conclave for which the lodge chose a spirit theme of the Battle of Guilford Courthouse. In the afternoon elections were held and Anderson Burgess was chosen as the new Lodge Chief. Others elected were Zach Warner – Vice-Chief of Program, Matthew Stevens – VC of Administration, Chris Kuczkowski – VC of Indian Affairs, Chris Stevens – VC of Communications. A highlight of this event is the Vigil Call-out. Ten Brothers deemed worthy of this honor were recognized and presented to the Lodge. Each was given a red-tailed hawk tail feather on a leather thong.

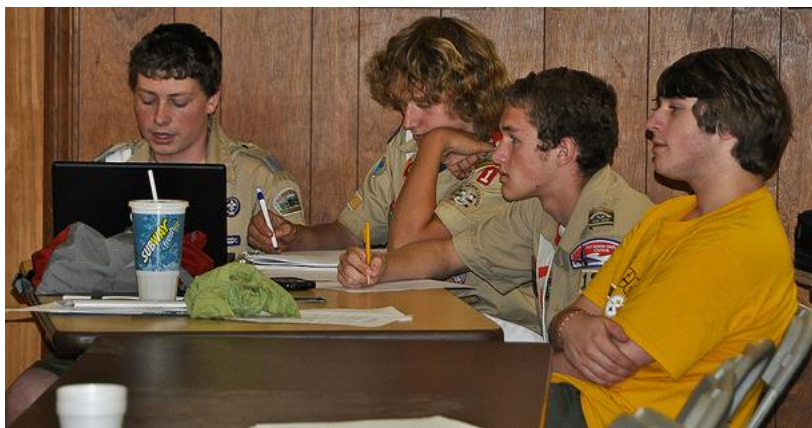

The Lodge sent a delegation to attend the SR-7B Section Conclave hosted by Croatan Lodge #117 at Camp Boddie on the Bonner Scout Reservation on April 16 - 18. The lodge's spirit theme was the Battle of Guilford Courthouse. Brothers wore tri-corner hats and satchels. The weather was pleasant and everyone enjoyed the evening shows, the big OAX on Saturday, and lots of good food. The lodge showed lots of spirit in supporting its Indian dancers and its Quest team. Achievements at this event included 2nd Place in the Quest for the Golden Arrow, 2nd Place in Team Dance, 2nd Place in Brotherhood Ceremony Team Competition and 3rd Place in the OAX Cooking Competition. The Lodge also won the Section Communications Award, again.

The Spring Inductions and Beaver Day were held at CSR on April 30 – May 2. The lodge inducted several new Ordeal members and a few became Brotherhood. Service projects included lots of maintenance around the facility to prepare for the upcoming summer camp season.

On May 14 – 16 the lodge held its Lodge Leadership Development training at Cherokee Scout Reservation. The new lodge and chapter officers spent time doing team building exercises and setting goals for the coming year.

The LLD was followed on Saturday by the Vigil Weekend. The following Brothers received the Vigil Honor: Austin Brandon, Anderson Burgess, Chip Elliott, David Aldridge, George Hodgin, Jeff Kleisner, Matthew Stevens, Rick Williams, Scott Spillman, and Zach Wall.

In July five provisional troops and numerous staff members attended the National Scout Jamboree at Fort AP Hill in Virginia. The lodge issued a special flap including Old North State Council's theme of "Home of the NC Zoo".

October 1 – 3 Fall Inductions were held at Cherokee Scout Reservation. Only one Ordeal was held this fall with a second event planned for Woodfield Scout Preservation in the Spring. The Lodge inducted over 150 new members and many important service projects were completed at camp. Chapter meetings were held and Fast Start training for the new members was conducted.

The lodge celebrated the BSA's 100th Anniversary and issued its first flap-shaped activity patch for the Fall Fellowship held on November 12 – 14 at Cherokee Scout Reservation. Following supper on Friday evening Brothers held a big Birthday Party for the BSA! The evening included lots of fun activities around the Dining Hall. Games were played and cake was eaten. On Saturday there was time in the morning for some training of Elangomats, in Indian Affairs, and for Unit Elections. At 3:00 there was a big Patch Auction. The proceeds were designated for the new Scout museum developing in the basement of the Doc Lewis OA Lodge. Next was a Scavenger Hunt then Chapter Competition. The highlight of the event was the 2010 Lodge Banquet. This is the lodge's opportunity to review all of the achievements of the year. Special presentations were made including the Founder's Award. A Brotherhood ceremony was held then an evening cracker barrel. Sunday started early with breakfast then a worship service. Some final lodge business was concluded and everyone headed for home.

